

Something In Me was Dying

Keane @ 4UOnly.biz

Something in me was dying
And my heart was heavy as stone
 Hard as i was trying
I never could find, find my way home
And your voice came out of nowhere
Be my friend and give me your hand
 Let's take off together
And then we can live wherever we land
 Something in me was broken
 And my thoughts were bitter and ill
 My world was blown open
 And I couldn't see and i couldn't feel
 You said be yourself and think of me
 And you'll know there's nothing to fear
 Let's make plans together
It's time to move on and get out of here
 Girl i need you
 Don't know what I would do
 Will you see the story through
 It's a cruel world
 And I need somewhere to hide
 But time goes by
 And your still on my side

Something in me was sinking
Cause my heart was heavy as stone
 I gave up with thinking
I never would find, find my way home
And your voice came out of nowhere
Be my friend and give me your hand
 Let's take off together
And then we can live wherever we land
 Girl i need you
 Don't know what i would do
 Will you see the story through
 It's a cruel world
 And i need somewhere to hide
 The time goes by and your still on my side
 Waiting

Searching
Turning over
Running round in circles
And i've worn myself out
Hoping that we'll always be together yeah we'll always be together[4x]

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlrics.com/>