

Carry Me

Amy Rivard

Carry Me I am so broken
Carry Me I'm not that strong
Carry Me, my arms are wide open
Carry Me to where I belongCarry Me I am so broken
Carry Me I'm not that strong
Carry Me, my arms are wide open
Carry Me to where I belongIt's so dark, these shadows weigh me down
Life's so heavy, I can't seem to turn it around
I can't speak, my voice has lost its faith
Show me where your light is, please show me your face.
Carry Me I am so broken
Carry Me I'm not that strong
Carry Me, my arms are wide open
Carry Me to where I belongPain and sorrow teaches strength and joy
To climb back up, must we be destroyed
Take me places, I've always dreamed
Take me now, I'm yours, I'm ready to believeCarry Me I am so broken
Carry Me I'm not that strong
Carry Me, my arms are wide open
Carry Me to where I belong
You've held me before, I've felt your grace
When a breeze passed me by, you kissed my face
When the sea knocked me down, I did not drown
You'll lift me again, I breathe in your embrace
Carry Me I am so broken
Carry Me I'm not that strong
Carry Me, my arms are wide open
Carry Me to where I belong
Carry Me I am so broken
Carry Me I'm not that strong
Carry Me, my arms are wide open
Carry Me to where I belong
Carry Me to where I belong
