Effie

Im gonna lace my boots
Then il get to walking
Cos from what I've been through
You can't tell me nothingNow your feeling loose
And thats how I felt
When i saw that other bitch
My heart began to meltBroken wishes now you miss this
And I'm drowning in this water
I don't know what to tell ya
I don't know what to tell ya
Im gonna swim and try to make it
Cos of the way that i felt it
Now m drowning in this water
I don't know what to tell yaAll sit in this room
While you start your talking
I will stay and listen
And leave when you're done explainingCos I'm feeling blue
All on what you've done
How could you give another
When I was your number oneBroken wishes now you miss this
And I'm drowning in this water
I don't know what to tell ya
I don't know what to tell ya
Im gonna swim and try to make it
Cos if the way that I felt it
Now I'm drowning in this water
I don't know what to tell ya
YeahhKnow what to tell ya
Know what to tell ya
Uh uh uhThinking of you kissing her
Know she's had a part of me
Second chance was short
Wish id had the strength to leave
Tell me how you feel
Tell me how you feel
Tell me how you feel
Tell me how you feel(Chorus repeat)(End)
