[Sean Paul:]Searching for the right lady (welcome to paradise)
Searching for the right baby (oh, welcome to paradise)

True gentleman with swag, just sexy laidback, sunshine everywhere you go
Boy you're so bad, you're so bad, oh oh oh oh
Wanna welcome you to my castle, you ain't gotta ask
Got the key now open that door, to my paradise
Now listen to the beat of the Congo
Like two animals of the jungle making love (making love) like we do
Shooting stars and rainbows, are waiting to be seen
Here you find your pot of gold if you just come and see
[Chorus:]Welcome to the Garden of Eden, I call it heaven (heaven)
I like to call it even paradise (welcome to paradise)
It takes my heart and mind away and it makes you wanna stay
You just might fall in love (alright), I like to welcome you to paradise
