

Woo

Rihanna

Woo

Woo, woo, yeah

Woo, woo

Yeah, yeah, yeah I bet she could never make you cry

'Cause the scars on your heart are still mine

Tell me that she couldn't get this sting

'She can almost be the worst of me'

Too bad she's just eating off your dreams

Let me know when you're ready to plea

Maybe you just need to send for me Send for me

send for me

Send for me (woo)

send for me Woo

Woo, woo

Yeah

Woo, woo

(Woo, woo)

Yeah, yeah, yeah I've been thinking bout ya late night

I've been fiending on the yayo

Ain't nothing left to talk about

Boy show me what you wanna do

These days you been feeling like

Yeah I been feeling lonely too

I'mma fuck it up won't you show me some

Run it back like you owe me something Woo, woo (feel me up, feel me up)

Woo, woo, yeah (feel me up, feel me up)

Woo woo (feel me up, feel me up) Tell me 'bout your picture perfect darling

Tell me how you think without the drugs

Maybe you just need to send for me

I don't even really love you

I don't even really care about you

I don't even really love you

I don't even really care about you no more

I don't even really care about you no more

I don't even really care about you no more Send for me

Send for me

Send for me (woo)

Send for me Woo (feel me up, feel me up)

Woo, woo, yeah (feel me up, feel me up)

Woo, woo, (send for me, send for me, send for me)
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Woo (I don't even really love you)
I don't even really care about you
Woo (I don't even really love you)
I don't even really care about you, no more (woo woo)
No more, I don't even really care about you no more (woo woo)
I don't even really care about you no more)
