

Stepping Stones

Stepping Stones

Well it used to be that you couldn't tell me anything
Just another young fool who thought he knew it all
I was runnin' hard and fast thinkin' I was invincible
Till I hit the wall, I hit the wallAnd I need you now, like I needed you then
 To help me get back up on my feet again
 Only you and you alone
 Can turn my stumbling blocks
Into stepping stonesWell you stood by me when everyone else had written me off
 And you stayed with me for reasons I'll never know
 Surrounded by troubled waters I was all but lost
You were my bridge across, my bridge acrossAnd I need you now like I needed you then
 To help me get back up on my feet again
 Only you and you alone
 Can turn my stumbling blocks
 Into stepping stonesAll the times I stumbled down
You lifted me up to higher groundAnd I need you now like I needed you then
 To help me get back up on my feet again
 Only you and you alone
 Can turn my stumbling blocks
 Into stepping stonesTurn my stumbling blocks
 Into stepping stones
 Stepping stones, stepping stones
 Stepping stones
