

Eclipse

JenRO

Verse 1

You were my best friend
I met you in 7th grade games we played walked throught the city fairly late Yo momma need you home before it got dark I was still out playin, you was home at 6 O'clock on the dot before the street light pop I walked to the park on the other block where I hit my first spark Got trees in my hand at the age of 11 thinkin 4 years ago I was only 7 years old I gotta get home, tomorrow got school, why am I alone?
I know I aint a fool man, I'm gettin cool grades Thanks for helping me, I wanna be like you and get a few A's You brought me to a place I aint never been before some after school youth group where they praised the lord This aint my thang, but I just wanted to hang with you across your heart slept a jesus chain I read you words of my diary page, you listened close, I know you felt my pain you said Jen never forget, that theres goin to be sun after the rain and I did..

CHORUS X2

I look in yo eyes I see an eclipse,
I feel the cold shift slow dance on yo lips
I hear the birds cry when the day is night
so I ask the lord to bring back my sunshine

Verse 2

Math class pass by I aint into it I cant call you cuz I'm a bad influence in highschool, I was well known if you didnt see me on the yard
I was probably at home
I told you all my secrets, all my experiments, and about the first girl I kissed You never judged me or left my side we even stuck together when our good friend died he was only 18 a little older than us They found him O.D. on the back of the bus

We thought it was a sign for us not to do drugs I'll never leave yo side, followed by a hug A few times we went out to the club so under age , so always lookin for love We was tight as a glove, yo words sweet as a dove you said, jen girl why you gotta drink so much?
still I stepped in the mud next mornin got class but as time passed, our phone calls came last

CHORUS X2

I look in yo eyes I see an eclipse,
I feel the cold shift slow dance on yo lips
I hear the birds cry when the day is night
so I ask the lord to bring back my sunshine

Verse 3

You made a few friends that came in the path I made a few friends that didnt even last we call each other up once in a while but I wondered why you were up all night From excited now you were so dam tired for the first time in months I began to cry I said, remember our friend and how he died?
Now it's my turn to say look at the sunshine I knew you were blessed thats when I moved to BX didnt hear from each other, not a page or a text for a while somethings wrong I could feel it in my chest I came home, but you aint the same friend when I left My heart dropped to the floor, when you walked in the door couldnt see my own friend around the cheek bones beauty is in you, now your body so frail you said, to keep in touch I aint doin so well I thought about our friend & how he died then I got a phone call you didnt make it last night my friend, my beautiful rose its yo time I'll see you in the morning looking at the sunshine
You headed to a place where theres no more pain
I said, never forget the sun after the rain
I said never forget the sun after the rain

---

Lyrics submitted by jen.

Lyrics provided by <https://damnyrics.com/>