The Harshest Light

TORRES

Get in line, take your time
It's a lot to decide
Tell me how much truth would you like to buy
But chew and swallow it good
Coffee to chase the mirror down
Lost I was not ready for what I foundIt was all in my mind
And my body was fine
But try as I might
I could not hideAnd my eyes were wide
And I stepped into the harshest
Light
LightRose of red and ill fame
All alone with my brain
Just a misguided woman in Amsterdam
You always said eat up my body
And you will see
But eat of that tree and you will be free of meIt was all in my mind
And my body was fine
But try as I might
I could not hideAnd my eyes were wide
And I stepped into the harshest
Light
Light
I stepped into the harshest light (Light)
I stepped into the harshest light (Light)
