

Unlearned

Skiploader

This was no upbringing. It only tore me down.

I was not taught. I was twisted.

This education is deprivation of the truth, halting my growth. Governed in the wrong.

Schooled in churches of dissent.

A fear of everything instilled in me.

But bleeding through this involvement, I dub myself. I unlearned what you have beat into me. Governed in the wrong.

Schooled in churches of dissent.

A fear of every man instilled in me.

Driven in like nails.
