

Test of My Heart

Downset

Test of my heart
Test of my heart
Test of my heart
Test of my heart
Test of my heartNo, I won't, foretold coast to coast
Footloose scenarios can't break my fame
Maintain, trade, meditate, all hours, can't wide
Operate straight from this place I sayTall words, we'll stop to where I foretold to give
Or I will stop to drop what was still
I stop to clutch my blood
 Fucked up thoughts turned the plotTest of my heart
Test of my heartCut much, caught up, tossed enough, got it rough
Thinking much about staying above
The dust fit into battle, handle cheap shots
Respond or be gone beyond this Babylon, conI've hurt worse than this, turn it into new purposes
Heard nervousness brings curses
It will take more than your amount to house
My count, so bounce, I hold it downCatchin' a bad one, catchin' a bad one
Catchin' a bad one, catchin' a bad oneTest of my heart
Test of my heartCan't believe it's happening again
All this hasn't convinced to the transcend
This can't be forced out of me
That familiar push can strain my energyCan you be here to challenge my fate
If so, you can't be stronger than predestined days
Force me in a corner and we'll both lose
The value of this is far beyond me or you, me or you, loveTest of my heart
Test of my heartCatchin' a bad one, catchin' a bad one
