

Touch (from the Touch soundtrack)

Foo Fighters

touch...light as a feather
I will wait for you honestly
I am yours - entirely...
I remember last night's dream could it be the one of me? I've known the face inside the window and the voice forever in my heart... like an angel's arrow I remember last night's dream could it be the one of me?
I've been waiting silently... would you risk it all...
with me?
