Take the Limits Off

Israel & New Breed

I'm not a man, I cannot lie
I know the plans for your life
I'm asking you to dream again, believe again
And take the limits off of meI'm not a man, I cannot lie
I know the plans have for you they're my design
So I'm asking you just to hope again and trust again
And take the limits off of meAnd I hear the Lord say
Take the limits off , take the limits off
Release me to accomplish what I promised You
Take the limits off me, take the limits off
Release me, release me
