

In Case You Change Your Mind

Waiting For Monday

I lost my heart to Southern California
the phone call on and 14 hour drive
It took my time
I didn't want to call you
I didn't get to say what's on my mind

You'll be fine
And I'll think about you all the time while now but tell me when you're gone
I'll wait I'll save
I'll save a place for you
In case you change your mind
I'll take my time

I lost my heart to Southern California
maybe you will spare the time to write
It's not good bye
It's wanting to be near you
It's wanting one more chance to clarify

You'll be fine
And I'll think about you all the time while now but tell me that you're gone
I'll wait I'll save
I'll save a place for you
In case you change your mind
I'll take my time
to tell you when you're gone
I'll wait I'll save
I'll save a place for you
In case you change your mind
I'll take my time!!!
