

We Still Fight

Hatebreed

Talk of the causes you support
Voice your misdirected views
You only comment on the things
You don't have the power to change
Do you even think before you speak?
Do you know what it is you condone?
Take a look at the world today

You've taken your freedom and safety for granted How do you justify?
(You have no right)

The way you disgrace those who gave their lives
And how do you justify?
(You have no right)

The way you disrespect those who's loved ones died Every day is a different crusade
You revolt from the safety of your fantasies
Privileged, you've never fought for a thing
You'd be the first to go if there was real anarchy
All your jargon makes me sick
You're the farthest thing from an activist
You've lost sight of what's important and real

You've taken your freedom and safety for granted How do you justify?
(You have no right)

The way you disgrace those who gave their lives
And how do you justify?
(You have no right)

The way you disrespect those who's loved ones died Go! This is dedicated to all the people who have given their lives

To uphold their beliefs
Not to those who try to condemn their sacrifices
(You have no right)

For those who fought for our rights
And for those who gave their lives
And for the families who's loved ones died
Its their honor for which we still fight
