40 Below Summer

You're mine, it's alright
This time, you're mine
All mine, all mine, mine
This time, you're mineDon't fall away from all my hate
Just makes you so inviting
Don't contemplate the underneath
All of my gears unitingYou're so special, you're so safe
You make me feel like flying
You're my pleasure, you're my pain
You make me feel like cryingI can't feel you in me
I can't take this, I need you to pray
You're so sacred, without you, I'm played
I can't, I'm so in need for you, for you, for youMy hands are tied by all these rights
And you'd seduce the notion
It's a delight how I excite
And make you feel the motionAnd I'm so taken, I'm so touched
And now the thought has escaped my head
And I'm not making you excite
Pushing that you're my babyI can't feel you in me
I can't take this, I need you to pray
You're so sacred without you, I'm played
I can't take this, I need you in meAnd I can't feel you in me
And I can't feel you in me
And I can't feel you in me
I don't feel you in meDon't dash the last of my dreams
'Cause every time I look at you, I break so easily
Open wide and you will see, so come and fly with meDon't dash the last of my dreams
'Cause every time I'm looking at you, I break so easily
Open wide and you will see, so come and fly with meDon't dash the last of my dreams
'Cause every time I look at you, I break so easily
Open wide and you will see, so come and fly with meDon't dash the last of my dreams
'Cause every time I look at you, I break so easily
Open wide and you will see, so come and fly with meCome fly, come fly with me
Come fly, come fly with me
Come fly, come fly with me
Come flyI can't feel you in me
I can't take this, I need you to pray
You're so sacred, without you, I'm played
I can't take this, I need you in meI can't feel you in me

I can't feel you in me
I can't feel you in me
I can't feel you in, feel you in, feel you in me
