

I Need Somebody To Lean On

Elvis and Ann-Margaret

I need somebody to lean on
I need somebody to, to tell my troubles to
 No use denying, I'm close to cryin'
But what good, tell me, what good would my crying do?
 I need somebody to help me
 Help me forget all those worries on my mind
 And when I'm lonely, if someone would only
 Want to be sweet and kind
 I need somebody, won't that somebody
 Please, please listen to my plea?
 Need that somebody, won't that somebody
 Come running to me?
 I need somebody to lean on
 I'm tired of being unhappy and so blue
 If she came I would hold her
'Cause I need that shoulder to lean on, yes, I really do
 I need somebody and maybe that somebody is you
