

Poor Thing

Johnny Depp & Helena Bonham Carter

Sweeney Todd: (spoken)

You got a room over the shop, haven't you? If times are so hard, why don't you rent it out?Mrs. Lovett:

People think it's haunted.Sweeney Todd:

Haunted?Mrs. Lovett:

Yeah. And who's to say they're wrong? You see, years ago something happened up here. Something not very nice.

(sung)

There was a barber and his wife.

And he was beautiful...

A proper artist with a knife,
but they transported him for life.

And he was beautiful...

(spoken)

Barker his name was.

Benjamin Barker.Sweeney Todd (spoken)What was his crime?Mrs. LovettFoolishness...

He had this wife, ya see.

Pretty little thing,
silly little nit.

Had her chance for the moon on a string...

Poor thing!

Poor thing!

There was this judge, ya see...

Wanted her like mad!

Everyday he sent her a flower
But did she come down from her tower?

Sat up there and sulked by the hour

Still she wouldn't budge from her

Poor fool!

Ah, but there was worse yet to come

Pure thing!

Well, Beadle calls on her all poor light

Poor thing!

Poor thing!

The judge, he tells her, is all contrit.

He blames himself for her dreadful plight.

She must come straight to his house tonight!

Poor thing!

Poor thing!

Of course when she goes there...

Poor thing!
Poor thing!
They're having this ball all in masks.
There's no one she knows there!
Poor dear!
Poor thing!
She wonders, tormented and drinks!
Poor thing!
The judge has repented, she thinks.
Poor thing!
"Oh where is Judge Turpin?" she asks...
He was there, alright!
Only not so contrite!
She wasn't no match for such craft, ya see.
And everyone thought it so dull.
They figured she had to be daft, ya see.
So all of them stood there and laughed, ya see!
Poor soul!
Poor thing!
Sweeney Todd: (spoken)
NO!
Would no one have mercy on her? Mrs. Lovett:
So it is you. Benjamin Barker. Sweeney Todd:
No! Not Barker. That man is dead. It's Todd now - Sweeney Todd. And he will have his revenge.
