

Our Darkest Day

Nine Lashes

The ache isn't all
What we remember from cliché.
Could we breathe at all?
Collapsing from the weight. So I'll wake up
Screaming to lift you out
It's all that I can do
Today's when I will...Scream!
My lungs will break under my strain
All the way, all the way into your dreams
I won't believe you loved in vain
You never loved in vain. The strangest of times,
Just remember not to change
And I'll make to rise
The things that never fade So I'll wake up
Screaming to lift you out
It's all that I can do
Today's when I will...Scream!
My lungs will break under my strain
All the way, all the way into your dreams
I won't believe you loved in vain
You never loved in vain. I hearby vow,
So hear me now!
Through the darkest days
I will scream your name aloud! Today's when I will Scream!
My lungs will break under my strain
All the way, all the way into your dreams
I won't believe you loved in vain
You never loved in vain
