Head Against the Wall

Anew Revolution

And I keep banging my head against this wall
And i keep banging my
I keep banging MY!!!!
All I can see
is a shell of me from years ago
it looked so proud
Its voice was loud
But now hangs low
I wanna Burn Myself
I wanna cut my skin
just so i feel something (something)
No matter what i do no matter what i say its like i'm fighting for nothing

I keep banging my
i keep banging my
I keep banging my head against this wall
And I keep banging my I kepp banging my Head

I feel the weight of all the world across my chest Like a cigarette
it burns and stings with every breath
I grind my teeth to the stone
I bite my tounge to hold every word that i'm thinking
I lost my head in a hole
I lost my heart and my soul
With every word that i'm bleeding

I keep banging my
I keep bangingmy
I keep banging my head against this wall
And i keep banging my
I keep banging my

I keepbanging my head against this wall
And i keep banging my

I keep banging my Head
I keep banging my head

And i keep banging my head against this wall
And i keep banging my
I keep banging my
I keep banging my head against this wall
and i keep banging my
I keep banging my

I keep banging my head against this wall
I keep banging my Head
I keep banging my head
I keep banging my Head
