

Winning Hand

Bilal

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Like a gambling man,
Who has no trace of luck
I roam these streets on the wheel
Till you came along
Just like the light at the dawn
With you on my side, lucky me
A game change, Im on the roll
Dealer hit me again,
Yeah were winning again, Im on the roll
Baby you're a winning hand
A game change, Im on the roll
Hit me again, dealer hit me again
Yeah were winning again, Im on the roll
Yeah I got an ace, damn shes a queen
She feels like a winning hand to me
Although my friends tell me no
They want me to fold
They just dont see what I see, whoa
A game change, Im on the roll
Dealer hit me again,
Yeah were winning again, Im on the roll
Baby you're a winning hand
A game change, Im on the roll
Hit me again, dealer hit me again
Yeah were winning again, Im on the roll
Babe, you're a winning hand
Im on the roll
Dealer hit me again,
Yeah were winning again, Im on the roll
Baby you're a winning hand
A game change, Im on the roll
Hit me again
Yeah were winning again, Im on the roll
You came, reluctantly,
I had to bring it out you, so shy when you want do
Girl its ok to cry and laugh at the same time

Just let it go, dont be bad, alright
Up for days and nights
A lover's dance
We play, the record player, always
And youre in over it, oh no.
