Loreley

Feuerschwanz

Merrily we sailed along Though the waves were plenty strong Down the twisting river Rhine Following a song Legend's faded storyline Tried to warn us all Oh, they called her, "Loreley" Careful or you'll fall Oh, the stories we were told Quite a vision to behold Mysteries of the seas In her eyes of gold Laying on the silver stone Such a lonely sight Barnacles become a throne My poor Loreley And the winds would cry And many men would die And all the waves would bow down To the Loreley And the winds would cry And many men would die And all the waves would bow down To the Loreley You would not believe your eyes How a voice could hypnotize Promises are only lies From Loreley In a shade of mossy green Seashell in her hand She was born the river queen Ne'er to grace the land

And the winds would cry
And many men would die
And all the waves would bow down
To the Loreley
And many men would die

And all the waves would bow down To the Loreley Oh, the song of Loreley Charms the moon right from the sky She will get inside your mind Lovely Loreley When she cries, "Be with me Until the end of time" You know you will ever be With your Loreley And the winds would cry And many men would die And all the waves would bow down To the Loreley And the winds would cry And many men would die And all the waves would bow down To the Loreley And the winds would cry And many men would die And all the waves would bow down To the Loreley And the winds would cry And many men would die And all the waves would bow down To the Loreley
