Broken Bones

White Apple Tree

You forget i got this far without you
Im not the person that you think i am
The life i want to lead needs no approval
From somone who will never understand

Youre forgetting my broken bones
Forgetting im not alone
Hard to stand alone
When this feels like home
In this crowd

Just because you lived a little longer
Doesnt mean your will is any stronger
You forget that all these scars remember
Everytime you say i need to change

Youre forgetting my broken bones
Forgetting im not alone
Hard to stand alone
When this feels like home
In this crowd

The decisions that we make
To stand alone

Youre forgetting my broken bones
Forgetting im not alone
Hard to stand alone
When this feels like home
In this crowd
