Strange Cup Of Tea

Sister Hazel

Sometimes I wake with a weary head
And I wonder how I'll ever get through
Then I think of the things you said
How you told me to myself be true
My faith in things unseen
My belief that it'll all work out
May seem like a strange cup of tea
But if it's all right with you then it's all right with me
On my feet I walk, with my legs I run
In my arms I'll hold another day
With my head I think, from my heart I sing
And with my hands to my face I pray
There's times I feel with the strains of life
I could just turn around, turn around walk away
Then a strength like a beam from above
Lifts me up by the hand and it leads me to say
"Good things for good people you see
Good things, they seem to all work out
May seem like a strange cup of tea
But if it's all right with you, well, then it's all right with me"
On my feet I walk, with my legs I run
In my arms I'll hold another day
With my head I think, from my heart I sing
And with my hands to my face I pray
Gettin' by, it ain't enough for me
I know what I like, I like what I see
I'm not only flesh and blood but
I'm heart and soul I know, well
Sometimes I feel at the end of the day
Was it all worth while or have I settled for less?
I sit back and you're there by my side
Sincerely you say, "We're both so blessed"
Count your blessings, count them one, two, three
Don't give up 'cause it'll all work out
It may seem like a strange cup of tea but
If it's all right with you, it's just fine with me, yea
On my feet I walk, with my legs I run
In my arms I'll hold another day
With my head I think, from my heart I sing

And with my hands to my face I pray, oh yeah, now
Du, da da du ee da da
La la, la la la
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Du, da da du ee da da
La la, la la la
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Du, da da du ee da da
La la, la la la
Yea, yeah, say, "Yea, yeah"
Du, da da du ee da da
La la, la la la
