The Need To Feel Alive

Forever Changed

Everything's fallen to pieces in my broken life.
Feeling I'm numb to the spirit inside.Has my heart changed?
It's beating on its own.
I'm feeling all alone;
I can't even see who I used to be.
A man once filled with joy.
Who always made the choice to think with his heart.
Oh no.Where is the life that I used to feel?
The love was real, burning deep inside.
Where is the pain that I long to touch.
No matter what - I need to feel alive.Living a lie.
My passion will escape,
Beneath the great mistake
my own misery.
How can I break this hardened soul of mine?
I'm running out of time for my recovery.Where is the life that I used to feel?
The love was real, burning deep inside.
Where is the pain that I long to touch.
No matter what - I need to feel alive.Everything's fallen to pieces in my broken life.
Feeling I'm numb to the spirit inside.
I need your touch
