Popularity

Jonezetta

They got the raddest hooks, they got the dopest looks And when they're misunderstood it's even better And they all agree the future ends with me On their computer screens like they even Matter to the words we sing or feel apart in our melodies If all you have is yourself, you're never going to need anyone else Popularity, do you think it's scary? Everybody's talking with their own opinion Popularity, it's a lot to carry I'll fall asleep to you screaming in my brain My brain, my brain Float into a room, I feel the attitude When I'm all alone it's even better Try drops a line, we all fall right in time And when you sing along, that's when we know you Matter to the words we sing or feel apart in our melodies If all we have is ourselves, you're never going to need anyone else Popularity, do you think it's scary? Everybody's talking with their own opinion Popularity, it's a lot to carry I'll fall asleep to you screaming in my brain Popularity, do you think it's scary? Everybody's talking with their own opinion Popularity, it's a lot to carry I wake up to you screaming Popularity, I keep on keeping But everyone's dying for their own opinion Popularity, yeah, I think it's scary I'll fall asleep to you screaming at my brain My brain, my brain, my brain, my brain
