Tell Me

Charlie Sexton

Dazzle of the night
And my [Incomprehensible] rise
Some place we can go
Tell me do you knowShow me to your door
I can't stand no more
Somewhere else to be
Darling, tell meThere's truth in her eyes
There's a promise there to give
Looking out your window
What do you see?Tell me honestly
Tell me tonight, tonight
Tell me with most honesty
You'll never tell me where
After you roam around, middle of the nightAs I walk alone
I give her all I own
Give it through the night
And disappear from sightWalk a lonely beach
Of [Incomprehensible]
As I walk along
I wonder what's really wrongThere's truth in her eyes
There's a promise there to give
Looking out your window
What do you see?Tell me honestly
Tell me tonight, tonight
Tell me with most honesty
You'll never tell me where
After you roam around, middle of the nightTell me honestly
Tell me tonight, tonight
Tell me with most honesty
You'll never tell me where
After you roam around, middle of the nightTell me honestly
Tell me tonight, tonight
Tell me with most honesty
You'll never tell me where
After you show around, middle of the nightThe truth in her eyes
