

Where We Started

The Districts

La da da dee da doo da da oh oh
Got this itch I need to scratch
My bodies aching like a heart attack
And I was thinking we would make it back
Oh right back to where we started Got me started I need a drink
Got this song I need to sing
Well I was thinking we were doing fine
Looks like were on down La da da dee da doo da da
La da da dee da doo da da Well I wake, and I fell
But I think, I'll tell you I'll leave to dream alone
A sleeping stone
Oh my Oh why
Because I brought shame to you darling
Name me your price
Don't you trust me got that look in my eye
Oh don't you know I'll push you over the side
Because this ship is sinking but there's land in sight And I don't trust my courage no more
Leave me to die
Leave you to cry La da da dee da doo da da
La da da dee da doo da da Then I faint, and I float
But I sink, deep below
I think I'll dream alone
A sleeping stone
Oh my Oh who
Oh I'll close my eyes, close my eyes
Wake me to die, wake me to die
I'll close my eyes, close my eyes
I'm waking to die, oh waking to die
Just waking to die
