

End of the Land

Van Morrison

When too many demands have destroyed all my plans
Going down to the end of the land
If I have to drive all night just to feel all right
Going down to the end of the land When it gets out of hand and I fail to agree
Just whats in it for me, going down to the sea
Then Ive got to run towards the setting sun
Going down to the end of the land When it gets out of hand and I beg to disagree
Just whats in it for me, get back down to the sea
And then Ive got to run to the setting sun
Going down to the end of the land If Ive got to drive all night till the morning light
Im going down to the end of the land
