

Pretty Girl

Jane Olivor

want to be a pretty girl! and have an easy kind of love... wouldn't have to say much - wouldn't have to long for a touch - and life would be so free and easy like a pretty girl!

want to be a pretty girl! and have somebody look at me with pride.
I'd be a rose or rainbow with color shining from my soul -
i know i wouldn't want to hide this pretty girl inside!

if i had myself to make over, if i had magic hands - i think that i would change his eyes that can't see me the way I am.....

want to be a pretty girl! even if only in my mind i'm gonna buy a red dress like movie stars and princesses and sing a song 'til my heart is pretty all the time!
