Say You Will

Ryan Cabrera

I've been overwhelmed
I've been uninspired
I've been under stepped
I've been overtired
I've been used up
Tied down, I can't speak
I've been all fixed up
What's wrong 'cause I'm still feeling weak?
I want you to say
You, you will be mine
I want you to say
You, you will be mine
I've been losing time
Before the day begins
I've been burning out
But you got me thinkin' again
Yeah, I had it all
But you made me want more
I want you to say
You, you will be mine
I want you to say
You, you will be mine
I've been walking through doors
I've been sleeping in halls with no floors
I find it so hard to say
I've been needing you more
So much more
I want you to say
You, you will be mine
Now to say
I want you to say
(You, you will be mine)
I want you to say, be mine
I want you to say
You, you will be mine
I want you to say, stay for you
Want you to say
I want you to say
I want you to say
