

Wrong Way To Hide

There for Tomorrow

Wanted to break
Needed to say
Our subtles are unparalleled
Searching for an answer
We're looking at those who seem to be fair
Cover it up to show the enlightenment
Who could pull this off?
In reality, in reality?
(Chorus)
We've had it made too far
We've had it made too far
Before it never calls
Before it never calls
We've had enough to bare
We've had enough to bare
People that we've never wanted say,
before we'd even say

The faces that you hide behind
Will only make us realize
That you can see the problem
We've made it up ourselves
And now we only need,
a second to rethink Cause' it's time to do more than just stare at the grill
(Rpt Chorus)
We're asking questions
Well an answer, can't be fair

Before we;d even say
Oh oh
It's time to do more than just stare at the grill
Out
(Rpt chorus)
Hey!
