

Surf-n-Turf

Minus the Bear

Right in front of me
Splitting you from me
Where do these cliffs come from
They keep on lining up Can you hold out your hand
Just a little bit further
I can feel your fingertips
If I just reach out a bit Right in front of me
Splitting you from me
Where do these cliffs come from
They keep on lining up Save me from myself
Save us from all the rest
Don't rest til you've saved enough
Then you know you've passed the test The wind is moving you further, further
So soft on the cheek
The wind is moving you further Right in front of me
Cutting you off from me
Where do these cliffs come from
They keep on lining up Can you break all the rules?
Leave the cliff for the sea
Let the surf carry us
Where it wants us to be The wind is moving you further, further
So soft on the cheek
The wind is moving you further, further
