Perfect Time

We Shot the Moon

You found a place between the lights Of yesterday I could not hide We can make it if we only try We can make itAnd there you are in perfect time Youre standing still, youre hands in mine And I love you for who you are And I love you just how you are You are, you are the only one for me And you are, you are the only one for me I tried for years to get this right And Im not about to lose this fight To lose this fightThe longest mile Ill walk with you If your sky falls Ill pull you through And I love you for who you are And I love you, stay who you are You are, you are the only one for me And you are, you are the only one for me I tried for years to get this right And Im not about to lose this I dont have to write it down

m not about to lose this I dont have to write it down
I know that youll be around
When the days are long the loves goes on

And everything that has gone wrong is brought into the lightYou are, you are the only one for me

You are, you are the only one for me

I tried for years to get this right

And Im not about to lose this fight

To lose this fight
