

Little Paradise

Pat Benatar

Can you see the view? Can you feel the heat?
I'm savin' my time for you, no time for me
I'm up on the news, you're wild in the streets
I'm under the lights, tonight I won't have to hide the need
But you got love in its place
In its own time and space
You got love in its place in your
Little Paradise
You got fashion secure in your own little world
Diamonds are forever for Hollywood girls
No need to cover, no reason to lie
Life without your Maserati is grounds for suicide
You got love in its place
In its own time and space
You got love in its place in your
Little Paradise, Little Paradise
But you got love in its place
In its own time and space
You got love in its place in your
You got love in its place
In its own time and space
You got love in its place in your
Little Paradise
Little Paradise
Little Paradise
Little Paradise
Little Paradise
Little Paradise
