How Beautiful

Twila Paris

How beautiful the hands that served The wine and the bread and the sons of the earth How beautiful the feet that walked The long dusty roads and the hill to the crossHow beautiful, how beautiful How beautiful is the body of ChristHow beautiful the heart that bled That took all my sin and bore it instead How beautiful the tender eyes That chose to forgive and never despiseHow beautiful, how beautiful How beautiful is the body of ChristAnd as He laid down His life We offer this sacrifice That we will live just as he died Willing to pay the price Willing to pay the priceHow beautiful the radiant bride Who waits for her groom with His light in her eyes How beautiful when humble hearts give The fruit of pure lives so that others may liveHow beautiful, how beautiful How beautiful is the body of ChristHow beautiful the feet that bring The sound of good news and the love of the King How beautiful the hands that serve The wine and the bread and the sons of the earthHow beautiful, how beautiful How beautiful is the body of Christ
