

Drenched in Fear

In Flames

You won't find a friendly face in the crowd
It's quite amusing to see how you suffer
(now)I refuse to let you steal my daylight
Barely awake but it strengthens my night rage
I've seen you kill many dreams, but I've got brand new armor
And your weapons are way out of reachHow does it feel to be demolished
Vaporized into thin air
Strange new feeling to be nothingAll the words I hear
They don't mean a thing
All the words I hear
They don't mean a thing
All drenched in fear
And the hate you bringMake me bother, I dare you
I got the strength I need
But I'll await my darkest moment
When the guilt doesn't get to meAll the words I hear
They don't mean a thing
All drenched in fear
All the words I hear
They don't mean a thing
All drenched in fear
And the hate you bringAll the words I hear
They don't mean a thing
All drenched in fear
All the words I hear
They don't mean a thing
All drenched in fear
And the hate you bringAll the words I hear
They don't mean a thing
All drenched in fear
All the words I hear
They don't mean a thing
All drenched in fear
And the hate you bring
