Cotton Jenny

Gordon Lightfoot

There's a house on a hill

By a worn down weathered old mill

In the valley below where the river winds

There's no such thing as bad timesAnd a soft southern flame

Oh, Cotton Jenny's her name

She wakes me up when the sun goes down

And the wheel of love goes 'roundWheels of love go 'round, love go 'round

Love go 'round, a joyful sound

I ain't got a penny for Cotton Jenny to spend

But then the wheels go 'roundWhen the new day begins

I go down to the cotton gin

And I make my time worth while to them

And I make my time worth while to them

Then I climb back up againAnd she waits by the door
Oh, Cotton Jenny I'm sore

And she rubs my feet while the sun goes down

And the wheel of love goes 'roundWheels of love go 'round, love go 'round

Love go 'round, a joyful sound

I ain't got a penny for Cotton Jenny to spend
But then the wheels go 'roundIn the hot, sickly south
When they say we'll shut my mouth
I can never be free from the cotton grind

But I know I got what's mineWith her soft southern flame Oh, Cotton Jenny's her name

She wakes me up when the sun goes down

And the wheel of love goes 'roundWheels of love go 'round, love go 'round

Love go 'round, a joyful sound

I ain't got a penny for Cotton Jenny to spend

But then the wheels go 'round

Wheels go 'round, 'round and 'round
