First messageX, it's Paul, ah, listen
The manager of the Crazy Horse just called me
And I didn't even know where the fuck you are, I guess you're in Vegas
But apperantly you left out of the club two nights ago
With ten plus girls and nobody's heard from you
Nobody's heard from the girls
So, if you get around to it and you think maybe it's a good idea
How 'bout you give me a call and let me know what the fuck is goin' on ThanksEnd of message
