Busted

Jennifer Paige

Chewin' on my raisinettes
Thinkin' 'bout what I want next
Thinkin' maybe I'm addicted
Checkin' out my pay per view
And all I do is think of you
What's wrong baby with this picture?
'Cause love is just too much work
Never should've lingered over dessertYou're my fever of my night
The dream I just can't fight
Every time I try, busted
You're the shiver up my spine
Can't keep my cool in line
You catch my eye, bustedLove reigns supreme
But never over me
That's how I've always operated
What's that thing we had
Up in your bachelor pad
Left me so intoxicated
Love is just too much pain
I never should've gave you my number and nameYou're the fever of my night
The dream I just can't fight
Every time I try, busted
You're the shiver up my spine
Can't keep my cool in line
You catch my eye, bustedDon't want somebody to love
Just want somebody to like me
Don't want somebody too close
Just want somebody beside me
Don't want somebody too much, nothing complicated
Nobody too much, too much, too much, ooh hoo
Love is just too much work
Never should've lingered over dessertYou're the fever of my night
The dream I just can't fight
Every time I try, busted
You're the shiver up my spine
Can't keep my cool in line
You catch my eye, eye
Baby, I'm bustedUh huh, uh huh, woa
No, I can't fight it, no, no

Baby, I'm busted, busted
