

Miscommunicate

Artist Vs Poet

We look so good from the outside,
So good at this wrong that it feels right.
And I saw this coming with the time,
But nobody knows, nobody knows. And we tell ourselves, just to tell ourselves not to tell ourselves that we're both in hell.
Caught up in the darkness new light.
We look so good from the outside,
So damn good from the outside. If all we do is think and miscommunicate, well girl, there ain't no use in breaking up.
And if you feel me when I say it then I'll just see you later,
Cause there ain't no use in waiting up, waiting up,
Waiting on me, girl.
Waiting on me, girl. I just can't stand to see you happy,
More than I love to see you sad.
I used to say that you were there for me, now I wish that you would run from me,
Then maybe I wouldn't feel so bad. So we tell ourselves, just to tell ourselves, to tell ourselves that this little game we play so we don't give ourselves away.
We look so good from the outside,
So damn good from the outside. If all we do is think and miscommunicate, well girl there ain't no use in breaking up.
And if you feel me when I say it then I'll just see you later,
Cause there ain't no use in waiting up.
Waiting on me, girl.
Waiting on me, girl. Miscommunicate.
Miscommunicate. If all we do is think and miscommunicate, well girl there ain't no use is breaking up.
And if you feel me when I say it then I'll just see you later,
Cause there ain't no use in waiting up.
Waiting on me, girl.
Waiting on me, girl.
