

Ready to Go

Family

I'm ready and able
To shove all your labels below
Just choose a word careful
Cos' I got a handful
Of crap I can throw
Been down the line
And I've served me some time
In more than you know
So don't move a hand
I'm ahead of your plan
And I'm ready to go If I'm good and angry
At bullshit phillandering you'll tell
Don't give me your "cool it"
Your press byline pulpit's
Beginning to smell
All of your guns
And your pseudo side puns
I'll easily elbow
So don't move a hand
I'm ahead of your plan
And I'm ready to go Been down the line
And I've served me some time, hey! I'm ready to go
Been down the line
And I've served me some time I'm hungry and howling
Can't quit this scowling today
Them "hole-in-the-wall" boys
Ain't never too tall
When they are, they're too aged
Been down the line
And I've served me some time
In more than you know
I've seen down the cracks
Of all of you Jacks
And I'm ready to go
