All By Myself

Halfcocked

Tried to pull tried to squeeze just to get through it
Tried to crawl on my knees, but I just wouldn't fit
Well, I got no celebration
"cause I've lost my invitation
I made my first reservation, but have no where to sit
Well I, live, All By Myself
And I, I can think All By Myself
Try to walk try to run just to catch up to you
Tried to steal what you've done just to end up like you
But I've got no motivation
"cause I've lost my inspiration
That's all right, you're too tight, your size just wouldn't do
And I, live, All By Myself
I, I can think All By Myself
I can breath All By Myself
And I, live, All By Myself
I, I can think All By Myself
I can breath All By Myself
I, I will leave All By Myself
