Seize Your Life

Murilo Romano

Seize Your Life

Every day I feel the same
And there is no one to blame
Thereâ€™s no secret; thereâ€™s no shame

Iâ€™ve been riding on this train
Trying to find a place to stay
But for now, Iâ€™m on my way

And itâ€™s good to feel the sun shining down on me
The wind blowing the road dust away from here
When the night comes and the breeze makes me feel cold
Thatâ€™s okay because I always have the wood of my guitar to hold on to

Seizing the day, seizing the night
Seizing all of my life
I might be wrong or I might be right
Iâ€™ll keep playing â€˜cause music is all I want to do in my life

Iâ€™m a hitchhiker on the roads
Like a blue jay or a dove
Flying just to share some love

Music makes us dream at night
The worst enemies stop to fight
Thatâ€™s the meaning of my life

When the night is black as the coffee that I drink
Everything is quiet and I take some time to think
I could now be anywhere doing anything
But I am where I am supposed to be and, God, it is awesome to be free!

Seizing the day, seizing the night
Seizing all of my life
I might be wrong or I might be right
Iâ€™ll keep playing â€˜cause music is all I want to do in my life
