

Love Runs Deeper

Lindsey Buckingham

Well you came to me you cooled my mind
The stakes were high impossible to describe
I loved you little child how you mystified
Just blinding flash we were parallel lines
Love runs deeper from the underground
Love runs deeper from a broken home
Black angel can't be alone
Love runs deeper from the underground
In the shadow moon steal tears I cried
You were out of tune it seemed to suit my dark side
You had a prophet's pose and two states of mind
I was sure I'd go we were parallel lines
Love runs deeper from the underground
Love runs deeper from a broken home
Black angel can't be alone
Love runs deeper from the underground
Love runs deeper from the underground
Love runs deeper from a broken home
Black angel can't be alone
