

Aint No Cure

Bananarama

The story's the same
Only the names have been changed
When he broke your heart you said
You'll never love againBut you'll be back for more
And you'll get hurt just like before'Cause there ain't no cure for love
Didn't they tell you, there ain't no remedy
They can sell you, joy and pain
It's the same as it ever wasDon't think it over
It's only just begun
Learning to love again
Is half the battle wonBut don't believe
They'll ever be, immunity'Cause there ain't no cure for love
Didn't they tell you, there ain't no remedy
They can sell you, joy and pain
It's the same as it ever was'Cause there ain't no cure for love
Didn't they tell you, there ain't no remedy
They can sell you, joy and pain
It's the same as it ever wasBut you'll be back for more
And you'll get hurt just like before'Cause there ain't no cure for love
Didn't they tell you, there ain't no remedy
They can sell you, joy and pain
It's the same as it ever was[Unverified]
