

321

Disciple

321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow
I'm feeling everything's about to blow

321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow
Here He comes, undefeated, undisputed

321

Relentless earth, coming to collect
Hidden from the awaited day of rest
The feet that swell, walk the memories of late
Wrapped around the heart of a pity masquerade

Watch out
Get down now
No doubt

321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow
I'm feeling everything's about to blow

321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow
Here He comes, undefeated, undisputed

321

The moon has turned to blood
Baptized in vengeance flame
They shake at what's to come
When He breaks the seals of pain

So roll back the prison bars
For charity not fame
Till the streets will over run
With the tongues that shout the name

Watch out
Get down now
No doubt

321

I'm feeling everything's about to blow
I'm feeling everything's about to blow
321
I'm feeling everything's about to blow
Oh, here He comes, undefeated, undisputed
321

Get down now

Watch out
Get down now
No doubt

321
Here He comes, undefeated, undisputed

321
I'm feeling everything's about to blow
I'm feeling everything's about to blow
321
I'm feeling everything's about to blow
Oh, here He comes, undefeated, undisputed
321
