HollyWood

Casey Fallen

Put on your best lipstick tonight.
You have to look good in the lights.Back out to Hollywood again.
Is that person really your friend?Follow the crowd, where will it lead?
I can feel our lost souls bleed.I don't know why I still play in these streets till the dawn time.
We are all trapped on these streets, I guess for all time.
I don't know why I still play in these streets till the dawn time.She said she will never be the same again.
Purse full of cards of people she'll never see again.I don't know why I still play in these streets till the dawn time.
We are all trapped on these streets, I guess for all time.
I don't know why I still play in these streets till the dawn time.Purse full of cards, of people she will never see again.NEVER SEE HER AGAIN.....
