

The Coast Is Clear

CeCe Winans

[Chorus:]

Come rest your soul, the presence of God is here now

The coast is clear, you dont even have to worry

The truth is that HE's on your side

His love was given as a guide

Leave ur fears behind.

[2x]Oh weeping brother, why are you crying?

Wipe your tears away from your eyes and

See the glory, that lives within you.

Take the perfect peace that only God can give you.Oh weeping brother, why are you crying?

Wipe your tears away from your eyes and

See the glory, that lives within you.

Take the perfect peace that only Him can give you.[Chorus]To all the weary and heavy laden,

Cast your fears on Him

So you can breathe again

The time is right now

No hesitation

Claim the victory, enjoy the celebrationBecause of Him we don't have to fear the dark nights

Because of Him we can dance up in the sunlight

Because of Him everyday is a testimony

So lift your hands and give Him glory

He's worth our praise.

[2x]

Sing it with me one more timeBecause of Him we dont have to fear the dark night

Because of Him we can dance up in the sunlight

Because of Him everyday is HALLELUJAH

Sing it loud now HALLELUJAH

He is worth our praise.[Chorus]

[Till fade]
