

Off the Wagon

Jason the Argonaut

They're my reasons for getting over this
And it's not much better than waking up
    With your head in your hands
And your arms are tired from supporting
    It's better in the long run
    It's better in the long run
    But this is the worst day
        Of my life
        I'm giving in
This can't be much better than dying
I'm going back to my selfish ways
I'm giving up what I could forget
I'm going back to my selfish ways
    I've tried
    It came out better the first time
If this is all you see then have a drink on me
    And look who's laughing now
