

Bivalve Blues

Paul Gilbert

Well every day I'm here at the bottom of the ocean baby
I can't seem to get myself out
Get myself out of this ship
Oh every day I'm here at the bottom of the ocean baby
I just can't seem to get out
Get myself out of this ship
But at least it ain't too unfamiliar
With all this time passing by
Comes to know it very well
You know it's cold and it's dark sometimes
I have a dream,
I can look up and see the sun shining in the sky
You know it's cold and it's dark sometimes
I have a dream,
I can look up and see the sun shining in the sky But I can't seem to find a way out now
And there ain't nobody here
Who can tell me why
Well there's nothing left to do
But sing a sad sad song
Sing it here at the bottom of the sea
Well there ain't nothing left to do
But sing a sad sad song
Sing it here at the bottom of the sea And maybe if I keep on singing
Someday, someone will hear me
Someone just as lonely as me
Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>